CLASSES & WORKSHOPS & EVENTS

The Ink People Center for the Arts is a public benefit community cultural development organization founded in 1979. We connect the community with resources for cultural development and help develop community-generated arts and cultural programs.

We offer exhibitions, classes, workshops, films, an arts and humanities library, and special events. Facilities include painting, printmaking, digital arts, music & performance, and a teen safe-space.

The Ink People office is open to the public Tuesday through Friday, 9 to 5. The MARZ Project is open Tues-Fri 3-6 & summers noon-5. Our many programs respond to community needs, and we encourage our members to participate in all aspects of community building.

Board of Directors

- Julian Lang, President
- Leslie Castellano, Vice President
- Robert Sataua, Secretary
- Eileen Sacra Capaccio, Treasurer
- Zo Devine, Michael Kraft,
- Sean McLaughlin, Glen Twombly
- Emeritus Director: Ted Loring
